

19nd, 20rd and 21th of April 2019.
TROLLS & LÉGENDES

« Trolls & Légendes » is a biennial fantasy festival which is held in the Lotto Mons Expo in Mons (Belgium).

Created in 2005 by Anthésis,

Trolls & Légendes is one of the first festivals of this kind in the francophone world, covering all aspects of fantasy, aimed at connoisseurs and families as well. The festival offers various concerts but also a books and comics fair, a cinema section, fantasy games and crafts. Our guests are authors, illustrators, editors, actors and game creators.

Besides the usual activities, there are lots of original animations to delight the public. That's why there are signing sessions, card games demonstrations and tournaments, exhibitions, shows with magicians and storytellers, ...

This year's theme is mythology

Comics :

About forty comic authors are present every year at Trolls & Légendes. Signing sessions, conversations and photographs, our visitors have the opportunity to meet famous comic authors.

Literature:

Between 40 and 60 authors, illustrators and editors come to Trolls & Légendes. Signing sessions, conversations and photographs, ... are also on the agenda.

Cinema :

The cinema department focuses on guest star with signing sessions, photoshoot, meet and greet...

This year we welcome

Kevin Sorbo

and we are expecting two or three other actors.
